2. INTRODUCTION

To ensure the personal safety and security of children and staff while attending the service is of primary importance.

3. POLICY

- 3.1 Emergency procedures will be known and practiced regularly by staff and children.
- 3.2 Staff will be trained to use necessary equipment i.e. fire extinguishers, etc.
- 3.3 The service has written procedures for dealing with emergencies such as:
 - Medical emergencies
 - Fire
 - Threats to staff and children at the service
 - Bomb threat
 - Robbery
- 3.4 An emergency management and evacuation plan for the service is to be in place for all to see and follow in times of an emergency.
- 3.5 Management plans and procedures are available to staff, and are regulated by the Duty Manager on site each day as per the roster. They are located in the Duty Manager manuals in Reception at Newtown Stadium, North Geelong Arena and the Bannockburn Recreation Centre, and in the Office at Camp Wyuna. Procedures will be adhered to by the instruction of the Duty Manager.
- 3.6 Staff to be trained as Duty Managers and receive emergency evacuation training as part of this process.
- 3.7 The 000 emergency number is placed beside each telephone along with other relevant emergency numbers.
- 3.8 Each site will practice emergency evacuations and procedures on a regular basis ensuring all staff and children are familiar with the emergency procedures. A minimum of once each school holiday for Children's Services and once per year for facility management at Newtown, North Geelong, Camp Wyuna and Bannockburn.

- 3.9 Procedures are in place to handle harassment and/or threats to children by persons known or unknown.
- 3.10 All emergency exits will remain clear and exit signs will be checked regularly to ensure they are in working order.
- 3.11 On commencement staff will be referred to the emergency evacuation procedures in the Staff & Volunteers Handbook as part of the induction and will then receive a Site Induction where they will be shown emergency exits and equipment
- 3.12 If an emergency occurs an evaluation will follow to ensure all procedures were in place and were adequate for the occasion.
- 3.13 Families, children, teachers and staff will be notified of any emergency evacuation practices on the day it is scheduled.

4 DEFINITIONS

Appropriate supervision- “Knowing where the child is at all times, direct and constant monitoring by the staff member within close proximity In contrast, in a school holiday care service, in which children are older, knowing where each child is and ensuring that staff members are in a position to respond may be considered adequate supervision.

Whenever children are being cared for, staff will need to make decisions throughout the day about where they are best placed to adequately supervise each child”.-

The proprietor of a children's service must ensure that all children being cared for or educated by the service are adequately supervised at all times that children are on the premises where the service operates or in the care of that service.

RELEVANT NOTES FROM THE DEECD PRACTICE NOTES

Adequate supervision relies on always being in a position to respond to each child's individual needs in a timely manner that adequately meets that need, and to intervene if necessary.

Adequate supervision requires that every child at the service should always be monitored actively and diligently. It means knowing where children are at all times.

Active supervision requires teamwork and constant communication between staff.

Staff members must be alert to potential for accidents, injuries and other harmful incidents throughout the whole service.
