1. WORKING WITH CHILDREN CHECK POLICY

2. INTRODUCTION

YMCA Geelong is committed YG104-G Safeguarding Children and Young People Policy, is dedicated to complying with relevant Working with Children Check (WWCC), obligations.

Working with Children Checks, helps protect children and young people by checking a person's criminal history for serious sexual, violence or drug offences and findings from professional disciplinary bodies, and are required by all employees and volunteers working with or intending to work with children and young people.

3. POLICY

3.1 Applicable Legislation

YMCA Geelong will comply with all State legislation applicable to YMCA Geelong services and programs in that respective jurisdiction, specifically including those that govern the mandatory minimum background checking standards (i.e. Working with Children Checks or Equivalent).

We proactively implement a practice that all employees/volunteers must have a current WWCC and exemptions for VIT/Police/Visiting workers will not apply under our policy.

3.2 YMCA Geelong Personnel required to obtain a Working with Children Check

3.2.1 All YMCA personnel must at all times hold a valid WWCC or equivalent to undertake a position that has been deemed to require a WWCC in line with YMCA Geelong Working With Children Check Card Policy and Procedures and the applicable State Legislation. YMCA Geelong has the ability to impose high levels of checking than the law requires and can chose to not accept the state legislated exemption to obtain a WWCC for the purpose of employment /volunteering at YMCA Geelong. Refer to YG 138-O Working with Children Check Procedures Clause 7.1 V6 04.04.2019 for list of the current WWCC Requirements and exemptions.

3.2.2 All YMCA Managers/Co-ordinators must utilise available resources as per the procedure. YMCA staff/ volunteers engaged in direct and regular contact with children require a WWCC before commencing /continuing.
An incumbent/applicant can provide a WWCC receipt as proof that they have applied for a WWCC and may be able to commence in circumstances as outlined in the procedure.

YMCA Geelong employees, volunteers, board members, consultants and contractors may commence or continue work if they present an WWCC application and Australia Posy Payment receipt as evidence that they have applied for a WWCC Check or renewal of a WWCC Check, provided that such action does not breach relevant legislation, as per the procedure. Note: Presentation of payment receipt will not be accepted in licenced or approved Children's Services setting and employees must have a valid WWCC card to work directly with children.

3.3 Working with Children Check Compliance

- 3.3.1 All YMCA Managers must ensure that all relevant staff and volunteers maintain valid WWCC at all times. This includes ensuring those in paid positions hold an 'Employee' WWCC and not a 'Volunteer' card.
- 3.3.2 Where a position has been determined to require a valid WWCC, the relevant Offer of Employment and Appointment, Offer of Appointment to a New Position or Offer of Variations to Terms and Conditions of Employment must stipulate that their ongoing employment or engagement as a volunteer is subject to holding a valid WWCC.
- 3.3.3 All YMCA Managers must provide employees and volunteers WWCC compliance records to the relevant People and Culture Director for recording and compliance monitoring purposes.
- 3.3.4 Where it has been determined that a position is exempt from requiring a WWCC, a YMCA Manager must inform People and Culture Director for recording and compliance monitoring purposes, and must conduct a review of any changes that may affect the exemption as required. ie: Work Experience students, Field Students, Parents using the services attending sites as observers.

3.4 Negative Working with Children Check Reports

- 3.4.1 Those issued with an interim Negative Notice, or a Negative Notice in relation to their WWCC application, must not commence and/or must be suspended from child related work.

3.5 Consequences of Failing to Provide an updated WWCC to employer (YMCA Geelong)

The consequences of failing to provide a WWCC card are:

- Volunteers and Casuals will not be rostered for shifts until the documents (WWCC card or Receipt of Payment/Lodgement) are provided to HR department.
- Permanent staff will not be able to work with children until the card is provided, this may mean they are stood down with no pay until such a time the renewed WWCC card is provided to the HR department.

Cardholder	A person who currently holds a valid WWCC.
Child / Young Person	Any person under 18 years of age.
Child Related Work	Work that usually involves, or is likely to involve, regular direct contact with a child or young person that is not directly supervised

4 DEFINITIONS

Consultants and Contractors	Any external agent engaged by the YMCA Geelong to provide goods or services to the YMCA who are involved in regular direct contact with a child or young person that is not directly supervised. ie: Group Fitness Instructor, Birthday host, Skate event co-ordinator, agency relief staff.
Directly Supervised	Immediate and personal supervision.
Regular and Direct Contact with Children and Young People	Contact that is not incidental, but normally part of providing a service or activity for children and/or young people, that can involve physical contact, face to face communication or contact within eyeshot when providing services or activities for children.
Working with Children Check (WWCC)	The WWCC is a mandatory minimum checking standard across Victoria for individuals engaged in child related work. The WWCC helps to keep children safe by preventing those who pose a risk to the safety of children from working with them, in either paid or volunteer work. This Check is governed by the Department of Justice.
YMCA Geelong Personnel	Refers to all YMCA Geelong Employees, Volunteers, Board Members,
